Meet Destiny!

DANCER, PERFORMER, & PUBLIC SPEAKER

Destiny Hernandez, a multi-talented member, and tradition keeper of the Payaya family, in the Tap Pilam Coahuiltecan Nation is a twelfth generation lineal descendent to the San Antonio Mission De Valero (the Alamo) and Mission San Juan Capistrano. She works full-time for the non-profit organization that the Tap Pilam Coahuiltecan Nation founded (American Indians in Texas at the Spanish Colonial Missions). Although Texas is not historically recognized for its Native American tribes, bands, or clans, Destiny is working to change that narrative through her work, existence, and life's mission. Through this work, Destiny decided to go back to school and study law to be a better representative for Indigenous peoples. Amongst Destiny's many talents is that she is a world-traveled performer and dancer. She uses a unique blend of athleticism, formal technical training of her dance studies, and spiritual movement to convey messages.

APPEARANCES & PERFORMANCES
